It is further alleged that Unknown Officer(s): 1) pulled [REDACTED] hair; and 2) kicked her on her back.

INVESTIGATION:

In her Initiation Report, Sgt. Williams related she answered a call of a "Request for a Supervisor" at 8214 S. Coles Ave. Sgt. Williams spoke with the complainant, [REDACTED] who stated that she wished to make a complaint against three officers that arrested her sister, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that accused Officer Silk Lind Williams responded to a domestic disturbance call between her siblings. [REDACTED] refused to give her Driver's License to Officer Williams. When [REDACTED] attempted to walk into her home Officer Williams told her to stop and grabbed her by her arm. [REDACTED] "snatched away" from Officer Williams and told Officer Williams not to touch her. Officer Williams then attempted to place [REDACTED] under arrest. [REDACTED] resisted and Officer Williams struck her. [REDACTED] stated that "a lot of detectives" assisted Officer Williams take [REDACTED] into custody. [REDACTED] stated that unknown officers pulled [REDACTED] hair while a second unknown officer struck [REDACTED] after she was handcuffed. [REDACTED] asked the first unknown officer for his name and badge number but he replied, "You figure it out." (Att. 4)

In a statement to IPRA on 20 November 2009 the victim, [REDACTED] stated she was sitting in her car in front of her grandmother's home with her sister, [REDACTED] and her brother. (Att. 6) [REDACTED] and her brother began to argue. [REDACTED] told her brother to get out of her car but he refused. [REDACTED] threatened to "beat him up" if he did not get out of her car. INVESTIGATION: (continued) from Officer Williams. [REDACTED] was able to pull free from Officer Williams' grasp. [REDACTED] proceeded to walk up the stairs, intent on entering her grandmother's home. "Officer Bravo" (now known to be accused Officer Jaime Bravo) then said to [REDACTED] "Where are you going?" [REDACTED] replied, "I'm going into my grandmother's house." When Officer Bravo told [REDACTED] not to go into the house she replied, "How's you going tell me where's I'm going? This is my grandmother's house. You're not in control of what's going on at my grandmother's house." [REDACTED] continued to walk into her grandmother's home when an unknown officer grabbed the back of her hair and pulled her backwards. [REDACTED] stated that Officer Bravo pulled the front of her hair while the unknown officer pulled the back of her hair. [REDACTED] tried to pull the officers' hands away. Officer Williams grabbed [REDACTED] left arm and attempted to handcuff her left wrist. [REDACTED] continued to struggle with the officers and an unknown officer grabbed both of her arms and pulled them behind her back. An unknown officer then kicked her on her back. [REDACTED] was then handcuffed. After she was handcuffed Officer Bravo repeatedly shoved her against a wall and pulled her hair while telling her to stay down and threatening to kick her on her face.

[REDACTED] stated that she sustained pain to her head, neck and back as well as abrasions on her back and hands. [REDACTED] received medical treatment at St. Bernard's Hospital. (Att. 6)

Attempts to contact the complainant, [REDACTED] and the two 911 callers were unsuccessful. A canvass did not produce any additional witnesses or information. (Att. 19, 47)

The related Department reports indicated that [REDACTED] knowingly obstructed the performance of police officers who were securing the scene of incident and attempting to interviewed civilian witnesses. (Att. 12, 14-16) [REDACTED] was asked to leave the scene after she informed officers that she did not reside at that location. [REDACTED] refused to leave and attempted to push past Officer Williams. Officer Williams then told [REDACTED] that she was under arrest for Obstruction and Battery. [REDACTED] then pushed Officer Williams on her chest with both hands. [REDACTED] struggled with Officer Williams as Officer Williams attempted to perform a wrist-lock technique to handcuff her. During the struggle Officer Williams injured her right arm, wrist and the third finger on her right hand. Additional officers on the scene assisted Officer Williams and [REDACTED] was placed under arrested. [REDACTED] was transported to the 004th District Station where she was charged with Resisting/Obstructing a Peace Officer and Battery to Officer Williams. The Receiving Screening Record indicated that [REDACTED] did not have any obvious pain or injury.

Officer Williams' Tactical Response Report indicated that [REDACTED] was classified as an "Assailant" in that she "Attacked without a Weapon." Officers Williams responded by utilizing verbal commands, a wristlock, and take down/emergency handcuffing techniques to place [REDACTED] in custody. When interviewed by Watch Commander Maurice Richards regarding the incident [REDACTED] stated, "I just snapped for a second. I just didn't want no one messin' with my brother." (Att. 12, 14-16)

Central Booking and Evidence Technician photographs do not depict [REDACTED] to have any obvious injury. (Att. 13, 22)

The PCAD Event Query and the summary of OEMC Transmissions indicate that on 19 November 2009, at 1417 hours and again at 1426 hours, [REDACTED] telephoned OEMC and reported a domestic disturbance incident with her 18 year old brother, [REDACTED], who was refusing to get out of her white Malibu parked in front of 8214 S. Coles. [REDACTED] reported that she was "trying to keep from hurting him" but that she wanted to "beat his ass."

At 1438 and again at 1439 hours "Lavetta" telephoned OEMC and stated that the police were battering his sister and that the police were going into houses and hitting people. (Att. 17)

Medical records obtained from St. Bernard Hospital indicate that on 20 November 2009, at 0735 hours, [REDACTED] was admitted into the Emergency Room complaining of a headache due to a battery. [REDACTED] informed hospital personnel that she had been assaulted by the police, during which her hair was pulled by the police. [REDACTED] stated that she had pain to her head, her right shoulder, and her ring wrist and hand. [REDACTED] was diagnosed with a minor head injury, abrasions to her left hand and lower back, and muscle strain. (Att. 24)

Upon arrival they observed numerous civilians yelling and directing profanity officers on the scene. Officers Sutton and Tolliver stated that as they helped restore peace they observed [REDACTED] being escorted to a police vehicle. Officers Sutton and Tolliver stated that they did not see any officer physically or verbally maltreat [REDACTED] (Att. 43, 44)

In a To/From Subject Report the witness, Sgt. Lunye Williams, stated that she spoke with [REDACTED] at the 004th District Station. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Williams that she was "just angry" and that is why she acted the way she did. [REDACTED] did not wish to make a complaint at that time. Sgt. Williams stated that she never saw any officer physically or verbally maltreat [REDACTED] during the incident. (Att. 46)

In separate To/From Subject Reports the accused, Officers Silk Williams and Jaime Bravo, related essentially the same information that was contained in Department reports. Officer Williams denied the allegations made by [REDACTED] (Att. #38, 42)

CONCLUSION:

Officer Silk Lind Williams, #19162, Unit 004

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation 1; that Officer Williams grabbed [REDACTED] by her shirt and arm, be Exonerated. In her interview with IPRA, [REDACTED] stated that during the incident she refused to comply with Officer Williams' verbal commands and attempted to push past Officer Williams in an attempt to enter her grandmother's home. This investigation revealed that [REDACTED] was the aggressor, and that Officer Williams' actions were in compliance with Department Rules and Regulations.

Officer Jaime Bravo, #4123, Unit 004

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegations 1 and 2; that Officer Bravo pulled [REDACTED] hair, "threw" her against a wall, and verbally abused her by threatening to kick her in the "fucking face" be Unfounded. The complainant, [REDACTED] did not cooperate with this investigation. [REDACTED] did not sustain any visible injury. Officer Bravo denied the allegations, and his account of the incident is corroborated by the statement provided by Officers Williams, Sutton, Tolliver, and Sgt. Williams. This investigation revealed no evidence to support the allegations.
